

Michael Craig: LIST OF PUBLICATIONS

Swinburn M.L., Fleming P.A., Craig M.D., Grigg A.H., Garkaklis M.J., Hobbs R.J. & Hardy G.E.St.J. 2007. The importance of naked grasstrees (Xanthorrhoea preissii) as habitat for mardo (Antechinus flavipes leucogaster) during post-fire recovery. Wildlife Research 34: 640-651.

Craig M.D., Withers P.C. & Bradshaw S.D. 2007. Diet of Ctenotus xenopleura (Reptilia: Scincidae) in the southern Goldfields of Western Australia. Australian Zoologist 34: 89-91.

Craig M.D., Seabrook L.S. & Freeman A.N.D. 2007. Soil surveys in the lower Peterson Creek: how important is sampling scale to identification of original vegetation communities? Proceedings of the Royal Society of Queensland 113: 3-7.

Craig M.D., Garkaklis M.J., Hardy G. E. St.J., Grigg A.H., Grant C.D., Fleming P.A. & Hobbs R.J. 2007. Ecology of the western bearded dragon (Pogona minor) in unmined forest and forest restored after bauxite mining in south-west Western Australia. Australian Journal of Zoology 55: 107-116.

Craig M.D. 2007. The short-term effects of edges created by forestry operations on the bird community of the jarrah forest, south-western Australia. Austral Ecology 32: 386-396.

Craig M.D. 2007. The ecology of the rufous treecreeper in the southern jarrah forest of southwestern Australia and implications for its conservation and management. Australian Journal of Zoology 55: 41-48.

Craig M.D., Withers P.C. & Bradshaw S.D. 2006. Patterns of diet and microhabitat use by four species of sympatric Ctenotus lizards: do they reveal foraging specialisation? Journal of the Royal Society of Western Australia 89: 1-5.

Craig M.D. & Roberts J.D. 2005. The short-term impact of timber harvesting on the jarrah forest avifauna: implications for the design and analysis of logging experiments. Biological Conservation 124: 177-188.

Craig M.D. 2004. The value of unlogged buffers for vulnerable bird species in the jarrah forest of south-west Western Australia. Pp. 774-782 in Conservation of Australia's Forest Fauna (second edition). Ed. by D. Lunney. Royal Zool. Soc. NSW: Mosman.

Craig M.D. 2004. A comparison of species counts and density estimates derived from area searches, line transects and point counts in the jarrah forest of south-western Australia. Corella 28: 55-59.

Craig M.D. & Chapman A. 2003. The effects of short-term drought on the vertebrate fauna of Wanjarri Nature Reserve. Journal of the Royal Society of Western Australia 86: 133-137.

Craig M.D. 2003. An ecological study of the Blue-faced Parrot-Finch (Erythrura trichroa macgillivrayi) near Yungaburra, Australia. Emu 103: 363-368.

Abbott I., Mellican A., Craig M.D., Williams M., Liddelow G. & Wheeler I. 2003. Short-term logging and burning impacts on species richness, abundance and community structure of birds in open eucalypt forest in Western Australia. Wildlife Research 30: 321-329.

Florentine S.K., Craig M. & Westbrooke M.E. 2003. Flowering, fruiting, germination and seed dispersal of the newly emerging weed Solanum mauritianum Scop. (Solanaceae) in the wet tropics of north Queensland. Plant Protection Quarterly 18: 116-120.

Craig M.D. 2002. The comparative ecology of four passerine species in jarrah forests used for timber production in south-western Australia. Conservation Biology 16: 1609-1619.

Craig M., Darnell J., Davis C., Kirkby T & Singor M. 2001. Waders at Lake McLarty, Western Australia. The Stilt 38: 18-32.

Craig M.D. & Roberts J.D. 2001. Evaluation of the impact of time of day, weather, vegetation density and bird movements on outcomes of area searches for birds in eucalypt forest in southwestern Australia. Wildlife Research 28: 1-7.

Simmons L. W., Llorens T., Schinzig M., Hosken D. & Craig M. 1994. Sperm competition selects for male mate choice and protandry in the bushcricket, Requena verticalis (Orthoptera: Tettigoniidae). Animal Behaviour 47: 117-122.

Simmons L. W., Craig M., Llorens T., Schinzig M. & Hosken D. 1993. Bushcricket spermatophores vary in accord with sperm competition and parental investment theory. Proceedings of the Royal Society of London B 251: 183-186.

PRESENTATIONS

Craig, M.D. 2007. The importance of Lake McLarty in south-west Western Australia for trans-equatorial migrants and other waterbirds. Fourth Biennial Australasian Ornithological Conference, Perth, Australia, 5th December.

Craig M.D., Grigg A.H., Grant C.D., Garkaklis M.J., Hardy G. E. St.J. & Hobbs R.J. 2007.

Does thinning and burning sites restored after bauxite mining improve habitat for terrestrial vertebrates? 32nd Annual Conference of the Ecological Society of Australia, Perth, Australia, 26th November.

Craig M.D., Grigg A.H., Hardy G. E. St.J., Garkaklis M.J., Grant C.D., Fleming P.A. & Hobbs R.J. 2007. Is the establishment of vegetation sufficient to restore reptile communities in sites restored after bauxite mining? Combined Ecological Society of America and Society for Restoration Ecology International Conference, San Jose, USA, 9th August.
